Happy New Year to all...and here we go again. The days fly past and all of a sudden this new year thing rolls around. Well better than the alternative. I am excited about the coming year and excited to be your President. I am just beginning to get my feet wet. The first board meeting is coming up on Jan 2 and the very next Thursday, Jan 12 is our first meeting of 2012. I look forward to beautiful quilts for show and tell and creative ideas to come from all of you. We will continue treats from the birthday girls and great participation in our Charity activities. Not much else to report. Retreat is coming up, so sign up if you have not. I'll see you soon.

DECEMBER BOARD MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Alamo Heritage Quilt Guild board was called to order at 6PM on Monday, December 5th, with President Dea Heller presiding in her home. Also attending were 1st Vice President Vickie DuBose, 2nd Vice Presidents Jackie Ledford, and Joyce Boyd (also serving as interim treasurer), Charity Chair Joanne Krepps, Membership Chair, Janet Rutherford, Newsletter Editor Ruth Ann Willey and Refreshments Chair Carole Van Buren.

Vicky asked about what she needed to bring to the Christmas potluck. (Plates, spoons and forks. ect.) Carol asked about next years programs. Jackie told us she is still waiting for responses from those she has tried to contact concerning their schedules. She says January will be either Charity or UFO. She will get back with us and let us know for sure.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan S. Feeley
Secretary
