FROM THE PREZ ...

My, oh my, oh my. It's almost time for RETREAT!!! I am up to my ears in patterns, kits, and other sewable things, trying to decide what I am going to pack for this great event. And I am sure that each and every one of you signed up for Retreat are doing the same things. Of course I will throw my back out trying to haul all of the UFO'S, and the two or three projects that I have been taking to retreat and bringing back, (still unfinished) from retreat for the past 3 years. as well as the projects that are finally chosen to make the trip...going out in pieces and coming home as Beautiful finished quilts. And I know it looks like I pack alot of clothes in my big red suitcase...but my clothes are in the plastic bag and all the cases have projects and the multitude of doo-dads it takes to cut, measure, pin, rip out and all the rest that we drag to Retreat and bring back home again for next year. All kidding aside, we will have a great time and I can hardly wait. Oh, one last thing—don't forget your sewing machines!!!!

Shop Hop begins on April 11th, and we don't schedule a speaker during this time. We will have a Salad Supper and bring our handwork to sew and visit with our friends. I look forward to seeing all of you on April 11th.

And...Keep the auction in mind and start collecting you donations.

Carole

BY-LAWS COMMITTEE

A committee is being organized to review/update the current Alamo Heritage Quilt Guild By-Laws. If you are interested in participating please contact our president, Carole Van Buren.

PRAYER LIST

The AHQG Board feels we can all benefit from prayer. If you would like to raise someone in prayer—for whatever reason—please contact one of the board members. No specific reason required.

Also pray for:

- Mona Jones—recovering from hand surgery.
- Beth Barron's 2 1/2 year old grandson, Keaton—a real trooper with his chemo.
- Our military members as they work to keep our country free.
- The guild members we haven't seen recently
- The leaders of our country that they make the right decisions to keep our country great.

REMEMBER! We always have room on the Prayer List for someone you know or know of. Just contact one of the board members or the newsletter editor.

CHARITY

Well ladies, we had another great month for charity. Our "Charity Bee" pieced 5 quilts this week. We also cut out 5 to be pieced to match our YO YO dolls. (I am sure you all remember them) . I have not lost them, just still working on them. We also cut out a few more yo yo dolls to work on at the next meeting.

We are doing fairly well with our bee - we have lots of laughs and food. So if you have a few spare hours (no need to come and stay for the full 4 hours) come on by.

I have quite a few quilts that need quilting. If you would like to do one please see me at the meeting.

Also, we have received some quilts for our auction. They are beautiful, be sure to come to the auction to see and BID on them. I am not in charge of our auction, I am just receiving them (lucky me) since I gave out all the orphan blocks. Some of our members have also given me some quilt tops they have made that they feel would make good auction items. So keep this in mind when you come across quilts you have made that you no longer like. (I am sure someone else would).

Thanks to all,
Joanne

AUCTION—AUCTION—AUCTION

The Auction will be here before you know it. Don't forget we need auction items and your presence at the auction.

We are also in need of backing for the auction quilts. If anyone has any large pieces of material they would like to get rid of (DONATE), we would love to have it for the quilts we are doing for the auction. Bring it to the guild meetings and give it to me, Dea Heller, Carole, or any of the Board members.

PROGRAMS

Vannetta Chapman was our guest speaker at the March meeting. For those of you who missed the meeting we had a fun evening listening to Vannetta tell us about the Amish way of life. We also had a question and answer session regarding the Amish beliefs, life style, and work habits. If you missed the meeting and are interested in some of her books you can visit her website. <http://www.goodreads.com/event/show/871499-alamo-heritage-quilt-guild>

We will have a potluck social at the April meeting so please bring your favorite dish. The April meeting falls during the start of Shop Hop so I did not schedule a speaker for this meeting. However, since there won't be a presenter at the April meeting I'm encouraging each of you to bring one of your handwork projects to work on and we'll eat and sew. We will display our Trish Stuart bali quilts at the April meeting. If you participated in the work shop last September and have your quilt top completed or quilted please bring it to the meeting for show and tell. I can't wait to see how these quilts turned out.

Our May presenter will be Holly Guthrie. Holly is the wife of Pastor Don Guthrie who is the minister at First Baptist Church on McCullough and Broadway. (Some of you might be familiar with the Wolfson House Craft show. This craft show is hosted by the church has been making her pillows for several years and a portion to missionary work. Holly is fun loving and has some great share with us. I am giving you the link to check out Holly's plans to attend the May meeting I think you'll enjoy it.

Carole and I have selected and ordered the fabrics for the Christmas challenge. We will have 3 Christmas prints that you may chose from to use in your challenge project. The guide lines are simple. You will choose from one of the three prints and the chosen print must be large enough to be seen in the quilt. We will have a traditional and two different whimsical fabrics. This challenge won't start until August so there is time for you to look at quilt designs. The challenge quilts will be revealed at the December meeting. Start looking for those quilt designs.

GET TO KNOW YOUR QUILT GUILD MEMBERS GAME!

This month is another challenge. Do you know who grew up on a ranch in South Texas, riding horses, working cattle from a squeeze chute and bird hunting? She went to college for a year and a half in mid town Manhattan New York, then ended back on a ranch in South Texas. She brags that she knows what a good cheese cake is supposed to taste like! Although now retired, she spent the last 10 years of her career inside Dominguez State Jail teaching Cognitive Intervention to adult male felons so they could make parole.

That all being said, look around and figure out who thinks her life may not be very interesting to other people. Contact Ruth Willey and enter for your chance to win.

We'll provide information for the next target—member in the May newsletter. So if you know something fun or interesting (maybe even a little quirky) about a fellow guild member (or even yourself) that she wouldn't mind sharing with the others let the newsletter editor know what the secret is, we'll post it and see how many can figure it out.

NAME TAGS

Another way for everyone to get to know each other is to wear our name tags. Joyce Boyd was kind enough to make several and all they need is your name. If you don't have an AHQG name tag ask for one when you sign in.
