If you are like me, and there's a pretty good chance that you are, October is the season when you want to show your autumn colors and some spooky Halloween fun! (Halloween is the second most popular holiday for decorating in our country). I like to display my fall quilts interspersed with hand made quilted pumpkins around our house. My gourds and mums go on the front porch and I bring out all things orange :)

The weatherman is predicting a cool front next week and I am really ready for it! Hope you all are ready for the Chinese auction scheduled for our October guild meeting. Have you found some things in your sewing room that you may not need or want, bring it on to our guild meeting! And extra flash was emailed on September 18th for the Christmas stocking instructions for our military overseas. Hope you can make a stocking (stuffed or not) for the November meeting. See you soon-

Keep calm and quilt on!

Janet Ann Daniel

P.S. Our bathroom remodel job is complete with great results, thanks for asking!

PRAYER LIST

The AHQG Board feels we can all benefit from prayer. If you would like to raise someone in prayer—for whatever reason—please contact one of the board members. No specific reason required.

- Eileen Pape, - Struggling with health issues. She's not been able to attend
- Beth Barron's niece, Christina- — she needs a kidney.
- Beth Barron's grandson, Keaton. He has reached the maintenance phase of treatment and will remain there until he is 6. Although he's doing well he can still use those prayers.
- Our military members as they work to keep our country free.
- The guild members we haven't seen recently or those who just need a little more encouragement with whatever is going on in their lives.
- The leaders of our country —that they make the right decisions to keep our country

CHARITY

Well, I am finally home after 4,800 miles and 15 states, including a short stay with family. Was loads of fun, but very tiring. I am just glad to be home.

I want to remind everyone that the “Charity Challenge” quilts are due at the November meeting. Some of you have already turned in all your quilts, but I am hoping there will be more to come.

I am already working on next year’s challenge and hope to have something fun for all of us to enjoy

The Charity Bee in my home will be held this month—October.

Thanks,
Joanne

PROGRAMS

Hello Everyone! At our September meeting Dea Heller, a member of our Guild and quilt instructor extraordinaire, shared her talent and creativity with her “Sashings, Settings, and Borders” trunk show. Dea inspired us to think outside the box when we ran out of fabric before we finished our project. We also had a wonderful turnout for the Bargello quilt workshop Dea taught on Saturday, September 13th. Dea has asked all of the attendees to bring their work in progress to our meeting this month so we can see everyone’s progress toward completing this beautiful quilt. I can guarantee we will be awed by the Bargello quilts that are being created. Rumor has it that at least one of our workshop attendees had a goal to show her finished quilt at our October’s meeting. (No fair attending a quilt retreat and staying up all hours sewing away! -- Really I am just jealous that I could not do the same because my Bargello quilt is also going to be really beautiful when I get it finished.)

You will not want to miss our meeting this month on Thursday night, the 9th of October. We get to shop! This is our Chinese Auction – one of our fund raising events for the Guild. These monies help pay for our Guild programs. Please don’t forget to bring your treasures to the meeting that you would like to donate to the Chinese Auction. I have a few items that need a new home that I am bringing that might be just the thing you have been looking for. Please support this event.

In planning your quilting time out over the next few months, don’t forget to carve out some time to finish your Tres Amigas’ Row Quilt. You will want to enter it in our very own Quilt Show at our December meeting. A prize will be awarded to the Viewer’s Choice. I challenge everyone to finish their row quilt and enter it in December’s show! Thanks Tres Amigas – this project has been fun and provided an opportunity to work on color choices and precision piecing.

Did you get to see Debbie Maddy’s sample Carpenter’s Star quilt that Joyce so kindly took to last month’s Guild meeting to show you? I will have it again at our meeting this month with the supply list and cutting directions so you can choose which size you would like to make. We will be hosting Debbie from Calico Carriage in Graham, Texas for our meeting and the workshop in November. Mark your calendar and plan to attend Debbie’s program “No Diamonds/No “Y” Seams, Old Quilts – New Methods” on Thursday, November 13th and sign up for her workshop on Saturday, November 15th.

I am busy plugging in the holes for our tentative program and workshop schedule for 2015 and sending out contracts to our speakers for their presentations and/or workshops. I welcome your ideas and suggestions as I finalize our programs for 2015.

We hope you are able to join us on October 9th – we look forward to seeing you at the meeting. Don’t forget you items for the Chinese Auction, $$ for the Auction, and $35.00 to sign up for Debbie Maddy’s workshop in November.

Kathy

Allison Brown-Cestero July 8, 1955 - September 24, 2014 Allison Marie Brown-Cestero was born July 8, 1955 in Fort Riley, Kansas, daughter of Maria and Douglas Brown. She passed from this life on September 24, 2014 following a courageous and spirited two year fight with cancer. During her life, being the daughter of an Army officer, Allison was exposed to many cultures beginning with a family move to Germany at age 3 months, and subsequent stops in Illinois, California, Maryland, Italy, France, Puerto Rico, Vermont and Texas. Allison attended Middlebury College in Vermont, graduating with a Bachelor's of Fine Arts degree. She parlayed her degree into a career in journalism, leading her eventually to San Antonio, Texas as an editor for Harcourt, Brace, and Jovanovich. Following 19 years at Harcourt, Allison and a peer formed their own editorial company, edExcel LLC, which they ran until closing in 2014. Allison was very active in the local quilting community including a term as president of Fiber Artists of San Antonio. After her mother's death in 1998 following breast cancer, Allison became deeply involved in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure. Merging her quilting skills and compassion for others, Allison chaired Quilt For The Cure, including the creation of the Tribute Quilts project on which loved ones lost to breast cancer are memorialized. A total of 10 quilts have been made to date and are displayed annually at the San Antonio Race for the Cure. Never one to sit still for long, Allison continued to hone her quilting skills and completed the Art Cloth Mastery Program in 2012. Her award winning works were exhibited in numerous galleries, festivals and private collections. Allison is survived by her long-time partner LaRay Breshers; her father Douglas, stepmother Clare; siblings Leslie, Steven, Michael, Jeffrey and his wife Suzanne, numerous nieces, nephews and her beloved cats. A Celebration of Life/open house will be held at Golf San Antonio, 915 E. Mulberry, San Antonio from 5:30-8:00 PM on Friday, October 3, 2014. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Allison's memory to Susan G. Komen for the Cure, PO Box 6678 San Antonio, TX 78209.

Texas Art Quilts and Modern Masterpieces

Institute of Texan Cultures puts classic and contemporary artisanship on display

SAN ANTONIO – For generations, quilts have brought warmth and comfort to Texans. From a matter of necessity to treasured family heirloom, to modern work of art, quilting traditions run strong in Texas.

From Sept. 5 through Jan. 11, the Institute of Texan Cultures will present "Texas Art Quilts and Modern Masterpieces," two traveling exhibits from the Texas Quilt Museum, featuring more than 40 contemporary, artistic quilts.

"Modern Masterpieces by Texas Quilters, 1989-2010" showcases 20 works by Texas quilters, completed between 1989 and 2010. These talented makers present a variety of themes, including gardens, fishing, and heavenly stars. With bold new interpretations of old favorites, the quilters in this exhibition have pushed the boundaries of Texas quilt making

"Texas Art Quilts, 1993-2011" presents 26 works by Texas artists, completed between 1993 and 2011. Embracing both abstract and representational modes, these makers celebrate a variety of themes, including science, fantasy, political causes, and natural beauty. Employing color and pattern in painterly fashion, the artists in this exhibition demonstrate that contemporary quilt art in the Lone Star state represents a vital aspect of visual culture.

"Texas quilts embody the spirit of enterprise and innovation of pioneer women in the Lone Star State," said exhibit curator Sandra Sider, curator for the Texas Quilt Museum in La Grange.

Sider is scheduled to visit the ITC on Oct. 3 for a presentation. From 7 to 8:30 p.m., she will discuss the process of evaluation and selection of quilts for the exhibit, as well as tips and tricks for beginner and long-time quilters alike.

"Contemporary quilts interpret that rich legacy for today's world, with superb artistry and imaginative compositions," said Sider.

This project is funded in part by a grant from the Quilters Guild of Dallas, Helena Hibbs Endowment Fund.

The Institute of Texan Cultures is located on the UTSA HemisFair Park Campus, 801 E. César E. Chávez Blvd., a short distance from the Alamo and the River Walk. Regular hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday-Saturday; noon-5 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $8 for adults (ages 12-64); $7 for seniors (ages 65+); $6 for children (ages 3-11); free with membership, UTSA or Alamo Colleges identification. For more information, call 210-458-2300 or visit TexanCultures.com.

UFO Program

Hello, Ladies,

The Show and Tell was really nice, now everyone is working on #1. Let's finish strong as we only have #5 left for the end of the year

You've all done a great job, thanks for making it so much fun.

Be thinking about your next list for 2015.

Marie

RULES:

Participation requires you provide a list of 6 UFOs to Marie Emerson ALONG with 3 fat quarters at the January meeting. (If 15 people sign up, the starting prize will be 45 fat quarters!).

Beginning at the January, general meeting and then again in March, May, July, September, and November, Marie (or another designee) will draw a number from 1-6. For example, if number 3 is drawn, everyone will work on their number 3 UFO for 2 months.

At the next UFO meeting show your completed UFO to get credit. If you have NOT finished the designated UFO you MUST pay a fat quarter as a fine. However, at the end of the year, you will still be eligible to have your name entered in the drawing if you have all 6 UFOs completed and any necessary fines paid. The winner(s) receive ALL the fat quarters accumulated.

Look forward to seeing the UFOs completed.
