Have you noticed the days are starting to get shorter? Our daylight is fading and I am not sure if I am ready to give up on summer yet! But I do look forward to somewhat cooler temperatures.

With Fall approaching, our September meeting will have election of officers. It is so important everybody attend and show support of our 2017 slate of officer nominees. In addition, there are other opportunities available for all guild members to become involved in committees such as hospitality and fundraising, auction and public relations. If you are new to the guild, committees are a great way to meet your fellow quilters. Talk to me, Susan Hall or Joyce Boyd to learn about some of our committees.

Our September speaker is Linda Winters, an appliqué quilter, pattern designer and blogger from Kerrville. Linda's program includes a trunk show with several of her appliqué quilts. We look forward to seeing her trunk show and hope you are there also...

Keep calm and quilt on

Janet Ann

PRAYER LIST

The AHQG Board feels we can all benefit from prayer. If you would like to raise someone in prayer—for whatever reason—please contact one of the board members. No specific reason required.

Dea Heller—health issues

Beth Barron's grandson Keaton—returning to treatment. Please remember him and his family in your prayers.

Carole Van Buren—health issues

Geri Collins—health issues

Vickie Dubose and her family, especially her mother

Phyllis Shaw and family—her parents are elderly and suffering from poor health

Joanne's nephews—in law enforcement, and all other law enforcement personnel. The families who lost their loved ones in recent shootings.

Our military members as they work to keep our country free.

The guild members we haven't seen recently, or those who just need a little more encouragement with whatever is going on in their lives.

The leaders of our country —that they make the right decisions to keep our country great.

We are happy to announce that we have good news for some members we've had on the prayer list.

Beth Barron's niece, Christina received the kidney she needed; Eileen Pape has recovered from surgery and attending the meetings again; Marque McKay and Cyndie Salomon are also improving.

So happy that our thoughts and prayers are working.

Quilters' Blogs and Other Resources

Beth Baron was kind enough to share the following info about a free online BOM starting February 14. She hopes you are interested and have some fun with it.

Over the next year 82 designers will present 100 6.5" blocks in all genres...pieced, appliqued, paper pieced, embroidered, English paper piecing. There's been a couple posts already mainly about fabric selection...it will take 30-35 fat quarters so a good stash buster too.

At the end of the year the patterns will be published in a book and won't be free anymore.

AHQG 2017 RETREAT NEWS

Registration for the 2017 retreat will begin at the October meeting.

PROGRAMS

Hello Everyone! What an array of tasty dishes we had to sample at our annual summer potluck this past month. We have some very talented cooks in our Guild! Thanks everyone for bringing your favorite dishes to share with us. It was great to have the opportunity to relax and enjoy eating and visiting with our Guild members. We also had a special treat when our Guild president, Janet Daniel, shared a very special trunk show with us. You may recall from reading Janet's articles in our recent Guild newsletters that she was busy sewing away, creating a quilt gift for each member of her son and future daughter-in-law's wedding party. Janet showed us 14 quilts she had made including the one for the bride and groom. The quilts were all beautiful and I am sure will be treasured as special mementos for many generations to come.

Please plan to join us this month at our Guild meeting on Thursday, September 8th when we'll be hosting Linda Winters from B. Bumble & Co, from Kerrville, Texas. Linda will have a trunk show of her patterns and quilts and do a demo of her unusual freezer paper method of applique. She has been fascinated with quilting since she was a little girl sleeping under a Dutch girl quilt her grandmother made. Now that Linda is a grandmother herself, she is marketing her original and whimsical designs under the B. Bumble & Co. name. Most of her patterns are designed for a simple freezer paper applique technique but will work with any method. Check out Linda's blog at <http://buzzingandbumbling.blogspot.com/> where you can keep up with her tutorials, tips, and other postings. She will have her patterns available for sale during the Guild meeting.

Don't forget to start gathering your "treasures" to bring to the Guild meeting on October 13th when we will be having our Chinese Auction. This is always a popular money raising event which provides us with an opportunity to find new homes for those multiple items we no longer have a need for. After all, how many 6" rulers can one sewing room hold?

I am also taking signups for the Metro Rings quilt workshop on Saturday, October 15th. Marcia Henry will take us thru the process to create our own beautiful quilt using the Quilt Curve Ruler. I have Marcia's lovely quilt sample to show you too. It is also not too early to sign up for our last workshop of the year. On Saturday, November 12th, Cynthia LeBlanc Regone, from Cajun Classic Quilts in Katy, Texas will be conducting a workshop for us. We will be making the Homespun Hearts and Baskets quilt. Check out Cynthia's website: <http://cajunclassicsquilts.com>. I will also have her quilt sample to show you at our meeting!

So, be sure to check out our Alamo Heritage Quilt Guild 2016 calendar to see what else we have planned for the remainder of the year. I hope you are able to join us for some of those events. And as always please send me any suggestions for next year's programs and workshops since speaker's calendars often are booked well in advance. I could not pull this all together without your support and suggestions – please keep them coming!

We hope you are able to join us at the Guild meeting on September 8th, you won't want to miss it, and we look forward to seeing you there.

v/r,

Kathy
