I am currently in Ruidoso, N.M. with some quilting friends. We come here once a year to quilt together in this mountain village. At least, that's what we tell our husbands and family. But we manage to find time for shopping, playing games, emptying wine bottles and enjoying the dry, cool climate and scenery. We all need to find time for enjoyment amid this "down" time with all the natural disasters and rising covid numbers. My motto is "follow your bliss!" I always find peace in the mountains and among friends. The only downside of this trip was the 9 hour ride getting here wearing that bulky black boot on my right foot. I fell at the August retreat and ended up with a bone fracture and torn ligament. I am healing nicely and will probably wear this lovely boot for 3 more weeks. Learning to walk in it is has been as easy as quilting a white quilt and keeping it white while eating Cheetos.

Fall is on the way! September will be the first month this year to have a program with a speaker at our guild meeting and a workshop the next day. We have some really good programs lined up and I am looking forward to those as well as seeing the beautiful quilts you have made and our fellowship together.

Stay safe. Any day spent sewing is a good day! Follow your bliss!

Blessings,
Linda

CHARITY

I hope this finds everyone safe and doing fine.

I will not be at the guild meeting this week due to a schedule conflict. I also will not be having the charity bee at my house yet. Covid numbers are too high again for me to take the risk.

Loletta Jeffcoat will be handling charity for me at the meeting. She will take in finished items and donations and will give out kits to be pieced and quilts to quilt. I really need some quilters so please help us. Charity quilts are great practice quilts to learn your quilting skills.

I have 38 finished quilts to give to Amanda Dove for the Methodist Hospital. Some of you have been working hard to keep charity going, and it is really appreciated.

The membership table (Dave and Tom) have agreed to set out charities' "Frequently Asked Questions" sheet. If you are a new member stop by the table and ask for one. The sheet tries to answer any questions you may have on how we do charity.

Hopefully will see you next month. Stay cool and safe.

Joanne Krepps
Charity Chair

THIS MONTH'S FUNNIES WERE PROVIDED BY LINDA CLARK

I'VE FOUND THAT GROWING UP IN THE SIXTIES WAS A LOT MORE FUN THAN BEING IN MY SIXTIES

You drop something when you were younger,
you just pick it up.

When you're older and you drop something, you stare at it for a bit contemplating if you actually need it anymore.

PROGRAMS

August Potluck Supper was a success, with food and fellowship. Again, Show and Tell only reinforces the talent pool of our members.

Our September 14th Meeting Guest Speaker is Michelle Watts. Her program will be “The Beauty of the Southwest”. Michelle has been a quilter since 1983 and opened her first quilt shop in Roswell NM in 1992. She began designing patterns in 1997 inspired by the beauty of the southwest. Michelle has traveled throughout the U.S. since 2000 lecturing, teaching, and vending at quilt shows.

Wednesday, Sept. 15th the workshop is “Wheel of Scraps”. You will need a 9-degree ruler ($28) which Michele will order if you do not have one. A list of material needed for the class will be provided when you sign up for the workshop. Please come for a day of fun. There are still openings should you want to sign up on Tuesday. Class charge is $35.

The October 12th Meeting will be “Trash to Treasure” formally Chinese Auction. This is always fun and who knows what will be available for a chance drawing.

Our November 16th Meeting Guest is Brenda Jeschke. Her program will be Tips & Techniques “What Books Don’t Tell You”. Brenda has been an instructor and judged quilt shows throughout Texas.

Looking forward to seeing you at the September Meeting.

Thank you

Denice Brockmeyer
Program Chairperson
