From Your President

Happy New Year AHQG!

This is going to be a great year!! Part of that depends on our keeping a positive attitude and being active. This is our auction year and I look forward to seeing all the beautiful quilts that have been made. Denice has been busy providing excellent programs and we have been blessed with new members joining.

Doris Rice is our January program and will present our workshop on Saturday the 15th, creating Laura Heine quilts. You don't have to haul a machine for this one.

We have amended the by-laws as needed and they will be posted on our website. A flash e-mail will be sent when the by-laws are available to review. Please look them over for any errors or revisions. We will vote on them at our February meeting.

Have a happy and healthy new year.

Blessings,
Linda

CHARITY

Well members, we are ending 2021 on a good note. Here is what we have given in finished quilts, pillowcases, and cancer pillows from August thru December 2021:

560 Cancer pillows delivered by Joyce Boyd to the Next Oncology Clinic.
31 Quilts went to the Krier House delivered by Tom Dickens and me
98 Quilts went to Dr Amanda Dove to be given to Methodist Hospital for the children
39 Pillowcases also went to Dr. Dove to help brighten the children's rooms.

I can't tell you how much it means to these kids to gets these items. The number we gave this year is great, especially when you consider it was done during Covid. The majority of the quilts and pillowcases went in December, so will really make a great Christmas and a great start for the new year.

I was hoping to start having the Charity Bee at my house in January, but I don't think I can. I need to wait just a little while more before we start.

I will continue bringing quilts and pillowcases to the meetings for you to take and work on. Remember you only have to work up to the point you feel comfortable. Some people do the piecing, some binding, and some quilting.

If anyone has any questions concerning charity, please feel free to come talk to me. Let's have another great year in 2022.

Charity Chair
Joanne Krepps
