Dear Quilters,

It's hard to believe it's November and that Christmas will be here next month. It's scary how fast time flies, especially at my age. I went to the Houston quilt show on Friday with my sister. The most sewing that she has ever done has been to sew on a button, but she learned to appreciate all that goes into making a quilt and the beauty and artistry of quilts.

I found out a number of years ago that she took homemaking in high school. She said by the time she threaded the sewing machine the bell rang. Her grade was based on making a dress and since she didn't know how to sew our mother made the dress for her and Kristy ended up getting an A. What cheats!

Our dad taught us how to play tennis and Mother kept her cooking and sewing skills to herself. Somehow both of us still found a man to marry us despite our lack of domestic skills.

The quilt show in Houston was a lot of fun but there were a lot less vendors this year and I think they were also fewer quilts. But what we saw were awesome... Especially the one made by Karen Lambdin. I got home in time to see the Astros win the World Series!

Our auction this year was a great success and I want to thank everyone who participated in helping with the auction, whether it was making quilts, quilting or binding the quilts, helping to set up at the church or bringing food. We have a very special group of people in our guild and people that were there as guests and not members of the guild mentioned how friendly and helpful everyone was. They were all very impressed. At our meeting on Tuesday we will have a zoom meeting and I think it will be very interesting. I want to wish everyone a very happy Thanksgiving . Be safe if traveling and go easy on that turkey and dressing!

Blessings, Linda

PRAYER LIST

Members of law enforcement, other First Responders and all their families

Military members as they work to keep our country free. Please pray for their families left at home.

CHARITY

We have all been working on the Auction, but as usually our members have still been giving generously of their time and materials. The charity bee is working hard to get more kits made for us to sew together. As usual they are doing a great job.

I am running out of batting and need help finding an inexpensive choice as my prior connection is no longer buying. One way to help is if you buy Hobbs batting and can save their UPC labels and bring them to me (it takes 5 labels to get the discount on 1 role) I can send them to Hobbs with my check and get a discount price. We still have to pay shipping, which is a bit of a bite, but it really helps to keep the budget down.

The other option is if you are a business and buy retail maybe you can give us some help on price. Please come see me or call and let me know if you can help us. I try to use Hobbs 80/20 as that is what the quilters seem to prefer.

Hope to see everyone at the guild meeting and ALSO don't forget the charity bee on the 3rd Tuesday of the month at my home.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving.

PROGRAMS

OCTOBER 2022

The October 11th Meeting was a preview of the Guild Auction Quilts. The Auction was a huge success.

The November 8th Meeting Guest is Jenny Lyons. Due to technical difficulties, she was unable to complete her program Quilting is a Contact Sport. The Zoom Program for the November Meeting will be "The Beauty of the Imperfect". Jenny will show you inspiring and encouraging examples of her work and renowned quilters/artists that demonstrate the beauty in their imperfection.

The December 13th Meeting will be the Christmas Party.

The January 10th, 2023, Meeting guest is Carol Morrissey, O'Carol's Designs. Carol is a fifth generation Texas quilter. Her work has been exhibited and published internationally and is in many private collections. She is known for her Free-Motion Thread Painting on a Photograph.

The January 11th Workshop will be on Free-Motion Thread Painting to enhance the colors and provide texture to a photo. The workshop will simplify the process of thread painting and create a beautiful painted piece.

Hope to see at the November Meeting.

Thank you,

Denice Brockmeyer Program Chair
